The “4th Noche de Los Cortos”

For immediate release.

Los Angeles, October 1st, 2014. On November 1st and 2nd, LosCortos.com will present it’s “The 4th Noche de Los Cortos” short film festival to bring the best short films from hispanic filmmakers from around the world.

With more than 80 short films submissions from 17 countries, this is our biggest year so far. “The 4th Noche de Los Cortos” will showcase two nights of short films with four awards: Best Short Film, Best Documentary, Best Animation and Best Short Film selected by the audience.

In addition to the short films, attendees will have the opportunity to enjoy a panel of people involved in the entertainment industry, a DJ with Transoverload, a Miami based DJ, and more.

The event will take place in downtown Los Angeles at the Civic Center Studios on 207 S. Broadway Suite One, Los Angeles CA 90012.

About Los Cortos.

Los Cortos.com was created by Yaniv Waisman, Venezuelan, living in Los Angeles. It started by asking a simple question: Where can I see your Short Films? Now we have over 80 amazing short films from around the world and constantly we are adding more. The festival was created to showcase the website and hispanic filmmakers who enjoy creating these films. Every year we receive more short films as the event keeps growing.
